TETRATHLON TRAINING CAMP

9 - 13 January 2012

Get a jump start on your Tetrathlon training by coming to the Zia Park Tet camp in the second week of January. All four phases will be covered, including rules for each section, with a mini competition on the final day.

The camp is non-residential, but we can find space for country kids to sleep over if needed.

Horses can stay at Zia Park for no extra charge.

Horses and riders will do cross country training every day, including practice for the slip rail and gate.

Swimming training will be done at the pool on the first and last days and at Lake Leschenaultia at least once during the week.

Running training will be done at Zia Park and on the trail around Lake Leschenaultia.

The shooting training venue is still to be decided. However, we will have licensed qualified and experienced people to train this phase.

The camp is suitable for pony clubbers who are doing the tetrathlon for the first time as well as for more experienced combinations. It will not be all training, we plan to have a lot of fun as well. We will ride to Lake Leschenaultia at least once during the week, with the possibility of an overnight camp at the lake.

Cost: $400
